Dear Ms. Vattima,

Situation Assessment

Plaza Hotel & Casino (PH&C) has been petitioned by the International Union of Painters & Allied Trades (Painters) and believe they may be vulnerable to organizing petition from the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America (Carpenters).

Objective

To educate your staff of their rights under the National Labor Relations Act and inform them of the consequences of third party interference. To help your management team navigate the pitfalls of an organizing campaign.

Intervention(s)

RWP Labor will provide consultant(s) to communicate with the employees and management team on multiple impact points including management training and analysis.

Payment Terms

We have agreed to the terms of a flat daily rate of $3,500 per day per consultant plus reasonable expenses. The balance will be invoiced weekly until completion of the campaign. Invoices will be payable upon receipt. Invoices not paid within 30 days of receipt will be subject to a 3.5% penalty to be assessed per month until payment is received. Reasonable expenses are defined as reasonable hotel and transportation costs (air and ground) plus $65 per diem per
