

Väderstad

Union Election Campaign
Management
Engagement Agreement

I. Scope of Proposed Work

NLRA agrees to provide campaign management and labor consulting services to Väderstad in conjunction with NLRB case 18-RC-321594. Based on discussion with Väderstad, NLRA proposes one full-time advocates onsite with the option to surge a second advocate as needed. The nature of campaign management is dynamic and as such the scope of work outlined here is subject to change as needs arise to best address Väderstad's needs. NLRA shall communicate regularly with the Client regarding the activities of the campaign and any adjustments to the scope of work shall only be made with the full prior approval of the Client.

Purpose of Project

Väderstad has retained NLRA to manage the NLRB election campaign.

Work to be Performed

NLRA will utilize every available means of communication to reach the employees for the stated goal. Methods shall include, but not be limited to, small group meetings of employees, individual meetings with employees, written communication, text messages, email, websites, signage, handouts, and any other protocol determined to be effective with Client's employees.

Timeline for Performance

NLRA recommends work begin immediately. Campaign activities should begin as soon as possible. If the election is conducted by a traditional manual vote, NLRA's campaign will end with the completion of the casting of ballots. If the election is conducted by mail the final day of NLRA's campaign work will be no later than the day before ballots are due at the NLRB Regional Office.

Promises

NLRA makes no promises, direct or implied, as to the results of campaign management services provided. NLRA guarantees its advocates will work individually and with Väderstad's leadership diligently and tirelessly to achieve an election victory.
